WELCOME FROM THE PRINCIPAL

REGENT Business School (RBS) remains a leading private higher education institution in Southern Africa, with an ever expanding footprint to the rest of the continent. The curricula of our programmes incorporate theory and practice to ensure that they prepare students for the world of work by contributing to building their leadership and entrepreneurial skills, and growing their knowledge of business and industry.

At REGENT we continue to make strides in teaching and learning, and to review our teaching and learning strategy to optimize the use of technology to support and enrich interaction with our students, irrespective of physical location on the globe, thereby “taking the distance out of distance learning.”

Our newly constructed state-of-the-art Institute for

Entrepreneurship, which also houses our newly established School of Accounting, has become a focal point of public engagement and debate on grand challenges such as globalisation, sustainability and ethical practices in our diverse society.

At REGENT, our staff work very hard to create a positive environment where every person’s unique strengths and talents are celebrated. We have a culture of high expectations for students and staff alike and it is our sincere goal that each and every one of our students graduates with a plan for the future and with the skills necessary to be successful in everything they do.

REGENT supports a strong Alumni Association. Our Alumni Association has participated in study tours to BRICS countries annually since its inaugural study tour to China in 2013. It is our hope that at the end of your studies, you will become an active member of the RBS Alumni Association and benefit from the professional and social networks that the Association provides.

REGENT is proud to announce that it is one of the founding members of HONORIS United Universities, which was launched in July 2017 in London. HONORIS United Universities is the first Pan-African network of private higher education institutions built upon its unique “collaborative intelligence” concept, and brings together pioneering efforts of leading tertiary education institutions in North Africa and Southern Africa. As a whole, Honoris United Universities offers more than 100 degrees in fields including Health Sciences, Engineering, IT, Business, Law, Architecture, Arts and Design, Media, Education and Political Science.

This prospectus will provide you with all the information you require to make a final decision. I trust that you will choose REGENT Business School. It will be our privilege to partner with you on this important journey. I look forward to welcoming you at REGENT Business School.

Regards

Professor Marvin M. Kambuwa

What support does REGENT Business School Provide?

A range of services and resources are available to facilitate a meaningful learning experience for all students.

Academic Support: One-to-one Support

In order to help you study more effectively, develop key academic skills and access academic support, you can book an appointment to talk with a faculty member to address your specific areas of concern. This facility is available via telephone, email and RBS website.

Workshops Sessions

RBS facilitates workshops sessions for students where teaching and learning can take place. Workshops provide the ideal forum for students to clarify areas of difficulty identified in their study programme.

Enrichment Sessions

Enrichment classes are offered to students who wish to further their understanding of a module and who have experienced difficulties during the academic semester. However the enrichment sessions are held in regions where there are adequate student numbers per module.

Website Support

RBS's website (<http://www.regent.ac.za>) offers new and prospective students access to information electronically. Registered students can further access their MYREGENT portal account from the home page by clicking on the student login link appearing on the right hand panel of the website. The MYREGENT portal is a vehicle that provides students access to academic, library and support resources and comprises two parts namely a portal account and a MYREGENT email account. Students are encouraged to make use of this facility to enhance their learning experience.

Videos to support learning

The Centre for Teaching and Learning has introduced a series of videos that is intended to complement student learning at REGENT Business School. Videos are available for selected modules.

Programme Introduction:

The Bachelor of Administration (BAdmin) degree is an undergraduate degree focusing on developing proficient skills in the fields of management and administration, particularly geared towards development and administration in the wider public sector, with particular focus on professionalising the administration and management of government.

Public Administration is the implementation of government policy and also an academic discipline that studies this implementation and prepares civil servants for working in the public service. As a “field of inquiry with a diverse scope” its fundamental goal, is to advance management and policies so that government can function efficiently, effectively, economically and equitably. “Some of the various definitions offered for the term are: “the management of public programmes”, the “translation of politics into the reality that citizens see every day”; and “the study of government decision making, the analysis of policies themselves, the various inputs that have produced them, and the inputs necessary to produce alternative policies.”

Public Administration is “Centrally concerned with the organisation of government policies and programmes as well as the behaviour of officials (usually no-elected) formally responsible for their conduct. ” Many unelected public servants can be considered to be public administrators, including inter alia, heads of cities, provincial and National departments such as municipal budget directors, human resources administrators, municipal managers, state mental health directors, cabinet secretaries. Public Administrators are Public Servants working in public departments and related agencies, at all levels of government.

HIGHER CERTIFICATE IN ISLAMIC FINANCE, BANKING AND LAW

Programme Introduction

The Higher Certificate in Islamic Finance, Banking and Law (HCIFBL) is a one year programme that aims to equip students with knowledge on a wide spectrum of Islamic Finance, Banking and relevant legal issues in order to create an improved understanding of the practicality of Islamic Finance, Banking and Law in a secular state. Reference will be made to South African Law as comparison to Islamic Law. It will thus be an enriching experience to both those with and without Islamic Law (Shari'ah) knowledge and to both Muslim and non-Muslim students.

The course is aimed mainly at students and professionals who are seeking to have more than a basic understanding of the concepts and operating principles that apply to Islamic banking in comparison to conventional banking. Applying Islamic banking principles in a non-Islamic environment poses serious challenges for Islamic banks and the course looks at the steps that the South African government has taken to facilitate Islamic Banking in South Africa. The course provides an overview of Islamic insurance (Takaful) and Islamic bonds (Sukuks) and compares them to conventional insurance and bonds. The course also examines Islamic Risk Management and Governance and the unique role of the Shari'ah Board in the responsible supervision of Islamic banks. The elements of accounting within a Shari'ah-compliant economic framework is also considered.

The course is designed for persons aiming to pursue a career in Islamic Banking and Finance and for those in the industry aspiring for career progression. The course will also benefit those who wish to learn the fundamentals of Islamic Law generally and Islamic Banking and Finance in particular.

On completion of this qualification, graduates will be able to:

- Display knowledge and skills that form the basis of Islamic Banking and Finance
- Identify the essential differences between conventional and Islamic Banking and Finance
- Understand the difficulty of conducting Islamic Banking in an un-Islamic environment

- Examine the unique role of the Shari'ah Board in the responsible supervision of Islamic banks
- Explain the concept of conventional insurance and the basis of takaful as an insurance scheme along with its operating features
- Identify and explain the essential elements of contracts in Islam
- Examine the elements of accounting within a Shari'ah-compliant economic framework
- Explain and discuss issues in relation to marriage, divorce and succession in terms of Islamic Law as compared to South African Law

Admission Requirement:

The minimum entrance requirements for admission to the "Higher Certificate in Islamic Finance, Banking and Law" programme are as follows:

- A National Senior Certificate with a Bachelor's Degree Endorsement admission or a relevant NQF 4 Qualification or Equivalent
- Candidates who do not qualify for admission in terms of any of the above but who feel that they are adequately equipped to cope with the programme will be considered for admission through a process of RPL - supported by detailed motivation of the candidate's ability to succeed. This motivation will be carefully considered by the Programme Selection Committee.
